Integrating the Monorail

City of Seattle

Station Area Planning Community Workshops

Please join the City of Seattle for the first in a series of City and neighborhood group-sponsored workshops on how best to integrate the monorail into Seattle's urban and neighborhood fabric. The series begins this December; additional workshops are tentatively scheduled for March 2004.

Come learn about the City's role in the Monorail Green Line project and let City staff know your ideas on how to make the monorail a true asset to your neighborhood.

During the December workshops, City staff will present an analysis to date of each station area, focusing on issues of:

- • access to the station (pedestrian, bicycle, bus, and vehicular),
- • the character and quality of places created around the station, and
- • maintaining the character, identity and vibrancy of the neighborhood.

The purpose of these meetings is to elicit feedback from you and identify issues, opportunities and constraints presented by the arrival of the Monorail. We encourage you to attend one or more of the following workshops:

Queen Anne, Magnolia and Interbay Stations

6:00 - 8:30 PM | Tuesday, December 2nd

Klondike National Park
117 South Main Street

Workshops on Downtown and Belltown stations to be conducted in January

In early 2004, City staff will hold another round of community meetings to review and discuss different community visions of the station areas, based in part on the information gathered in the course of the December meetings.

Station Area Action Plans will be prepared and presented to community groups for feedback in mid-2004, prior to finalizing the plans in summer 2004. These action plans will identify the community's vision goals for each station area and recommended policy and investment options to realize their vision.

Please contact Michael Graubard at 206-684-5049 or Michael.graubard@seattle.gov if you have any questions regarding these workshops.
